RE: Disposition of Record for Denylle McDowell application for LMT

To Whom it May Concern:

Yesterday, I received a letter from NSBMT requesting information and documentation for DUIs that came up during the background check for my Massage Therapist license application. Please consider this letter as the response to the requested written description of the incidents in question.

In the summer of 2017 I had an incident in my personal life that consisted of a violent date rape. (It was quite traumatic and personal, so hopefully it is clear why I feel the previous sentence is sufficient explanation.) Unfortunately, I tried to handle this situation on my own, rather than seek professional assistance. That mistake was the catalyst that led to the behavior which resulted in the DUI arrests that NSBMT flagged on my background report.

The first arrest occurred in mid-July of 2017. I was driving my car while speeding in a construction zone and had a fender bender with another vehicle. I was cited for those infractions and, additionally, arrested for DUI. I went to court, agreed to a plea arrangement which consisted of a plea of no contest for the DUI and guilty for the traffic infractions. I, then, paid the fees and fines associated with this case. Those fees included paying the insurance deductible for the owner of the vehicle I hit.

The second arrest occurred a couple of weeks later at the end of July 2017. I was driving and sped through a light that was red. I was cited for that traffic violation & arrested for DUI. At this time, I chose to enter a court created DUI program called Sparks Recovery Court that placed me on probation until September 2018. Some of the terms of this probation included (but are not limited to) mandatory: court appearances, random alcohol/drug testing, home visits, and counseling. I completed this program, successfully, at the end of September 2018.

Upon successful completion of the Sparks Recovery Court program, both of these DUI charges were dismissed. In this package, I have enclosed certified Disposition of Record documents from the courts for each DUI, as requested. These documents confirm the description above. The last page of each court's certified document shows that all fines and fees have been paid in full, which was also requested information from NSBMT.

These DUI arrests are a part of an extremely dark part of my life that I have worked very hard to move beyond. Obviously, I didn't handle this situation in a healthy or productive manner. But, in the end, I got the help that I needed and should have sought out in the first place. And, as I'm sure is evident in my background check, I have had no further issues in the four years since. All of the circumstances described here influenced my decision change my path to pursue a career in massage therapy. It also influenced my philosophy of how I want to practice massage therapy a plays a role in the future goals I have for the populations I hope to serve as a massage therapist.

Hopefully, this description gives the board sufficient insight into the circumstances and details surrounding the DUIs and the outcomes so that my application for a Massage Therapy license can be completely processed and approved. If additional information is needed, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Denylle McDowell
