Re: Complaint No. NVMT-C-1956
Date of Hearing: January 8, 2020
Respondent: Xiaomei Shen

Dear Ms. Anderson:

I am in receipt of your email dated October 12, 2021. Please be advised that this office represents Xiaomei Shen with respect to the issues regarding her massage license. Tereza Van Horn and I spoke on September 20 regarding the results of the above-referenced Massage Board hearing regarding the massage license of Xiaomei Shen. When I inquired if there might be a way to appeal the Board's decision, she suggested that I contact Sophia Long at the Attorney General's office. As you are now aware, I spoke with Ms. Long. She informed me that, as long as I was looking only to ask the Board to reconsider only the fines, and not the license revocation, she would get the matter placed back in front of the Board for this month's agenda. She asked that I contact Ms. Van Horn to formally request that we be placed on calendar for purpose of reconsideration of the fines imposed at the hearing where my client was not present because she did not get notice of the hearing. I formally request that in my response to Ms. Van Horn.

It appears that the Notice of Hearing sent by the Nevada Board of Massage Therapy to Ms. Shen was sent to her business address some time after that business was closed down. As a result, she never received the Notice of Hearing.

Pursuant to your request for me to provide this information, Ms. Shen's current mailing address is 4470 Elk Point Circle, Las Vegas, NV 89147-6207.

I thank you for your attention to this matter, and I await your response as to when the matter may be placed on calendar.

Sincerely,
/s/ Michael I. Gowdey
