10 III.

11 FINDINGS OF FACT

- 12 7. The Board, having considered all the evidence presented, the testimony of witnesses, and 13 the arguments of counsel, for good cause appearing, finds sufficient quantity and/or 14 quality of evidence sufficient to meet the preponderance of the evidence standard of proof
15 as set forth by NRS 622A.370 and by Nassiri v. Chiropractic Physicians' Board of 16 Nevada, 130 Nev. Adv. Op, 27, at 8-9 (April 3, 2014).
- 17 8. Via Complaint and Notice of Hearing dated July 8, 2022, Respondent was notified of the 18 administrative hearing scheduled for Wednesday, August 10, 2022.
- 19 9. Detective Aliyev testified to the following:
- 20 a. That on January 28, 2022, he was working undercover investigating prostitution
21 related crimes.
- 22 b. At approximately 8:05p.m., he entered Diva Foot Spa located at 6135 W. Sahara
23 Ave., Suite #1, Las Vegas, Nevada 89146, and was greeted by Respondent; he 24 subsequently paid forty dollars ($40.00) for a half hour massage.
- 25 c. During the massage, Respondent touched his buttocks and testicles.
- 26 d. He asked for a "blowjob," wherein Respondent nodded and responded, "I want it 27 in my mouth."
28

- 1 e. He asked for sex wherein Respondent declined, but negotiated two hundred dollars
2 ($200.00) for a "blowjob" with a condom, or four hundred dollars ($400.00) for a
3 "blowjob" without a condom.
4 f. He and Respondent agreed on a "blowjob" with a condom for two hundred dollars

- 8 a. She began work that day at 3:00p.m. and that she was the only employee the entire 9 time.
10 b. She worked for the massage establishment for three (3) days before the alleged
11 facts in the Complaint.
12 c. Earlier that day, she saw on the news a shooting that took place in an Asian 13 massage establishment in New Mexico, which led to her being afraid that day.
14 d. The doors are locked when there aren't any customers.
15 e. When Detective Aliyev entered the establishment, she was afraid because he was a
16 big man with what looked like a fake beard.
17 f. That during the massage, Detective Aliyev relentlessly propositioned her for 18 sexual activity, and she refused several times and became further afraid.
19 g. She received a citation wherein she appeared in court and after completing certain 20 requirements, the matter was dismissed (Exhibit 2).

21 11. The Board finds that:

- 22 a. The facts in the complaint are true.
23 b. Detective Aliyev's testimony is more credible than Respondent's testimony.
24 c. The specific manner in which Respondent touched Detective Aliyev is indicative
25 of solicitation and is known by detectives in determining whether soliciting
26 activity is present.

27 12. Any of the Findings of Fact that are or can be construed as Conclusions of Law is hereby 28 incorporated as such to the extent as if originally so designated.
