Dear Inspector,

My name is Jingjing Yang. I recently received a citation 22019. With the help of a legal aid, I was told that you cited me for practicing massage with a fake license on 7/7/2022.

As far as I know, I always wear my blue card license during my practice. I have not been to Ju Ju massage location for a long time. I am not sure why I would be cited at that location.

I am wondering if you have checked identification of the alleged person who was practicing massage at that time. It was not me for sure. Can you double check for the correctness?

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely Yours,

The meeting is a public meeting. You are not required to attend; however, your attendance is recommended. You are specifically informed that you have the right to appear and be heard in your defense, either personally or through counsel of your choice. You have the right to respond and to present relevant evidence and argument on all issues involved. You have the right to call and examine witnesses, introduce exhibits, and cross-examine opposing witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues involved. You have the right to contest:

- 1) The facts forming the basis for the determination that you have committed an act which constitutes a violation of this chapter or the regulations of the Board;
- 2) The time allowed to take any corrective action ordered;
- 3) The amount of any administrative fine ordered;
- 4) The amount of any order to reimburse the Board for the expenses incurred to investigate the violation; and
- 5) Whether any corrective action described in the citation is reasonable.

The Board may also consider your character, alleged misconduct, competence or physical or mental health. You may choose to have an attorney or other representative of your choosing present during the meeting, present written evidence, provide testimony, present witnesses relating to your character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or physical or mental health.

If the Board determines it necessary, after considering your character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or physical or mental health whether in a closed meeting or open meeting, it may take administrative action against you at this meeting. This informational statement is in lieu of any notice that may be required pursuant to NRS 241.034. This notice is provided to you under NRS 241.033. Please be aware you are one of many agenda items, and the Board may take items out of order. The meeting may last until 4:30 p.m.

In the event you need an interpreter, please provide one at your own expense.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the office at (775) 687-9955.

Sincerely,

Sandra J. Anderson
