To whom it may concern:

My name is Tony Davis, I work at the European Massage Therapy School as a Clinic Supervisor. I met Domenic at the end of November 2020. As a clinic supervisor I noticed Domenic surpass all expectations and was sought out by a number of clients. Domenic showed special care to his new and regular clients. He showed up early everyday with a good attitude and a passion for massage.

I am familiar with Domenic's history and feel he deserves a second chance. He demonstrated professionalism and I believe he would be a benefit to the massage therapy field as a whole.

If I can help in any way feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Tony Davis

To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Personal Reference – Domenic Lonardo

I have known Domenic for about one year now, first as a fellow student, and now as a friend. I met Domenic on the evening of November 30, 2020. Domenic first initiated conversation with me; right away, I knew he was a force to be reckoned with. With high energy, Domenic lights up a room.

As the massage program went on, we got to know Domenic a little bit more. He was always the first person in the classroom and always ready to learn. He was very inquisitive, willing to work with anyone, willing to give and take feedback. Most importantly he was eager to perfect his craft.

School progressed and we started doing clinic. Domenic interacted with his clients with the utmost care. Time and time again, I would hear his clients rave about his services. They constantly called him the best massage therapist they had ever had and thanked him for helping heal their bodies. Domenic had quite a bit of regular clients. I feel like that, in itself, speaks volumes of his character and his professionalism.

I am not too sure about what has happened in Domenic's past, but he is definitely deserving of a second chance. I can honestly say that I have never met anyone more passionate about massage therapy than Domenic. To keep him away from massage therapy would not only be detrimental to him, but the entire field as a whole.

If there is anything else that I could be of help with, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
Cecile Golding-Ables
