

My name is Jin Deng. I am in the process of obtaining my professional massage therapy license in Nevada. In preparation for the up-coming video zoom meeting on June 7, 2023, I would like to present some extra information which I hope can be supportive in my case.

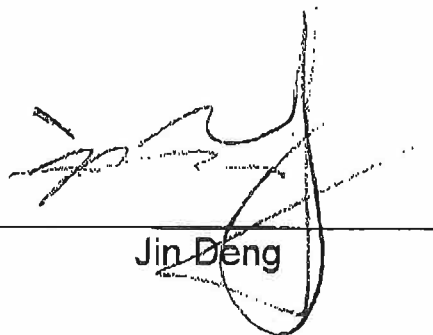

Having been in the gaming industry for more than 20 years, I have never had any trouble with my employers. However in my most recent gaming license renewal 6 months ago I was in the same situation that I find myself in now : namely the arrest record from my background check. After extra communication and investigation the Nevada Gaming Control Board decided I was cleared and that I can keep my Gaming Card and remain as a table game dealer. I am still currently on my same job as a baccarat dealer in the MGM high limit room.

I have previously presented proof to the NSBMT that in both of the cases that I was arrested for, I was discharged and the cases were dismissed without penalty or fine.

My husband Michael and I have come to a better understanding of each other. He regretted to have been unfaithful and betrayed me. He said he is sorry and that he is the one to blame.

I am sorry for the fact that my over-reaction had resulted in such harmful consequences for both of us that we, especially me, will for life remember the experience as a learning one.
