Dear Ms. Van Horn,

I recently received a letter from you indicating that you are looking my phone number records. I contacted my cell phone provider T-Mobile. T-Mobile does not have a service to tabulate my ownership of a specific phone number. They are not able to trace back for too long. However, I can tell you that in my case it is very simple. I have had this number, 5199, since around 2008. This has been my main cell phone number and I do not use another number regularly.

Please let me know if I provide any other related information.

Sincerely,

Aim in Zhang

b. 10:00 a.m. - Aimin Zhang-Not Present.

Keith Marcher stated that this is case #NVMT-C-0909, Ms. Zhang's license number is NVMT.3535. On or about February 13, 2009, Aimin Zhang was employed and/or working in the capacity of a licensed therapist at Wonderful Massage Spa in Las Vegas, Nevada. On or about February 13, 2009, while on shift at Wonderful Massage Spa, Ms. Zhang performed a massage on an undercover police officer. During the course of the massage, Ms. Zhang solicited sexual activity and/or made sexual advances toward the police officer. The foregoing conduct constitutes grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to NRS 640C.700(9), having engaged in or solicited sexual activity during the course of practicing massage on a person, with or without the consent of the person, including, without limitation, if the applicant or holder of a license (a) made sexual advances toward the person and/or NRS 640C.700(9) has, in the judgment of the Board, engaged in unethical or unprofessional conduct as it relates to the practice of massage therapy. Mr. Marcher stated that Exhibit 1 is the original Complaint Notice of Hearing which was sent to Aimin Zhang's last known address via certified and regular mail and was returned. The service is legal since it was sent to Ms. Zhang's last known address. Mr. Marcher asked for the admission of Exhibit 1 which was the returned notice.

Detective Gil Shannon-Present. Court reporter, Susan Culp, swore in Detective Shannon.

Keith Marcher questionned Mr. Shannon and asked him if he is assigned to the Vice Unit of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and to give the details of February 13, 2009.

Detective Shannon stated that he has been with the LVMPD Vice Unit on and off for fifteen years. Detective Shannon stated he was investigating a complaint for possible prostitution activity at Wonderful Spa at 3380 Arville, Unit #K, Las Vegas, Nevada. Detective Shannon arrived at the location and was approached by a female identified as Aimin Zhang. Ms. Zhang told him that the massage would be $70.00. He presented her with a $100.00 bill and was given $30.00 in change and was then escorted to a room and she told him to get undressed, lay on the table and cover himself with a towel, a sheet or a cloth. Detective Shannon then laid on the table and Ms. Zhang left the room. Ms. Zhang returned to the room after a brief period of time and preceeded to give Detective Shannon a massage. He first laid on his stomach. She massaged his legs and buttocks. Ms. Zhang then had Detective Shannon roll onto his back and slid the towel down that was covering his genitals, exposing them to her and then started massaging the front part of his body starting from the upper half. She started with his chest and stomach area, then his legs and feet. When the massage was near completion Ms. Zhang pointed to his penis and did an up and down hand motion with a partially closed fist. Ms. Zhang stated it would be $50.00 and Detective Shannon provided her with $50.00 in U.S. currency. Ms. Zhang then filled her hands with a clear oil and then came to the direction of Detective Shannon's penis. I asked her if she could hold on and massage my feet a little bit more and Ms. Zhang then massaged his feet. After massaging Detective Shannon's feet, Ms. Zhang said she needed to wash her hands and she left the room. When Ms. Zhang returned to the room, Detective Shannon was then joined in the establishment by other detectives on the his squad and Ms. Zhang was advised she was under arrest for Soliciting for the Purpose of Prostitution for offering to massage Detective Shannon's penis with oil for a fee of $50.00.

Mr. Marcher asked Detective Shannon if Aimin Zhang solicited him for sexual activity?

Detective Shannon stated "Yes."

Witness Detective Shannon was excused.

Keith Marcher asked the Board to find Aimin Zhang guilty of violating 640C.700(4)(a) and 640C.700(9) and revoke Ms. Zhang's license to practice as a massage therapist and pay the costs of the formal hearing.

For edification, Mr. Marcher stated there is a provision in the law that the Board can use that allows the Board to accept the allegations if the individual in question is noticed of the hearing and then fails to appear. This can be found in NRS 622A.350(2) that allows to find the allegations as true if the individual does not show up.

Motion: Michael Smith made a motion to find Aimin Zhang guilty of violation of 640C.700(4) and 640C.700(9). Seconded: Michelle Viesselman

Discussion: Billie Shea stated that she thought Detective Shannon's testimony was very compelling and he gave a complete description of what happened.

Michelle Viesselman stated that Detective Shannon's testimony was one of the most clear cut cases that the Board has heard. It was not a case of him soliciting her, but a case of Ms. Zhang soliciting him.

Michael Smith stated since she uncovered his body, she violated one of the NAC's of draping. Motion carried.

Penalty phase:

Motion: Michael Smith made a motion to revoke Aimin Zhang's license for no less than five years and charge Ms. Zhang all administrative and hearing costs associated with the hearing. Seconded: Michelle Viesselman Discussion: Deborah Wenig that revoking Ms. Zhang's license for five years was a little excessive.

Michael Smith stated that maybe in five years Ms. Zhang could learn how to do her draping to start with and then she could take some classes and maybe learn how to respect boundaries as well.

Deborah Wenig stated "Why couldn't she just learn that in one year?"

Michael Smith answered "She has had her license long enough to learn it. Apparently it hasn't been long enough and that maybe five years would be long enough for her to learn it.

Michelle Viesselman stated that this is the first case where the therapist herself solicited, initiated the solicitation.

Joe Cracraft stated that he feels five years is a little severe. Mr. Cracraft felt the previous cases that the Board has heard on drug addiction were more severe than this. He would be more inclined to go with the history of several cases the Board has had in the past.

DeAnn Prestidge felt that five years was a little aggressive and is more comfortable with revoking for two years.

Keith Marcher stated that the Board has the authority to revoke for up to ten years if the Board wants to. In the past, the Board has revoked in the 1-2 year range, but it does not mean that the Board has to stay there. If the Board feels it is getting to the point of getting tired of hearing cases relating to prostitution, the Board has the discretion of revoking for up to the ten years

In Favor: Michael Smith, Michelle Viesselman Opposed: DeAnn Prestidge, Joe Cracraft, Deborah Wenig Motion not carried.

Motion: Michelle Viesselman made a motion to revoke Aimin Zhang's license for two years and charge her with all administrative and hearing costs of the formal hearing payable within 90 days.

Seconded: Joe Cracraft In Favor: Joe Cracraft, DeAnn Prestidge, Billie Shea, Michelle Viesselman, Deborah Wenig Opposed: Michael Smith Motion carried.

Joe Cracraft asked for clarification from Keith Marcher regarding the statute referred to earlier of finding a person guilty if defendant is not present.

Mr. Marcher stated that it is NRS 622A.350(2) which is Administrative Procedure and it is in front of a few regulatory boards and was passed a few legislative sessions ago. It was patterned after something the Nursing Board had in their statutes because they had a lot of people that were no shows. Instead of going through the whole hearing process, if they are noticed properly, and they decide they are not going to show up, then the Board has the ability to accept the allegations as true, find them guilty and discipline them and get the hearing over with for expediency purposes. Mr. Marcher was letting the Board know of this for the future to utilize if someone does not show up to a formal hearing to save some time.

Drew,

I hope all is well. We have an applicant Aimin Zhang requesting to obtain a Massage license. We have done some research and have linked her to Lavender Wellness Center using the above listed license number which indicates as revoked. Can you provide any details pertaining to this?

Dear Board Staff,

I received a letter that provided information of a Board meeting where my case will be heard on 6/7/2023.

I am more than happy to attend this meeting and answer any questions that the Board may have. Unfortunately, I have some other important matters to take care of during that week of June. I probably will not be able to prepare for or attend this meeting in time.

May I request to re-schedule my hearing date? I really appreciate your help and the possible flexible schedules.

Sincerely,
