To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Kevin Zanders. I was his instructor for the advanced portion of his massage therapy program at Northwest Career College.

While a student, I observed Kevin to be dependable, talented, eager to learn and very likeable. He had no problems with fellow students or instructors. He was also very popular with his clients throughout his internship in our student clinic. Kevin is very friendly, helpful and truly wants to help people through massage.

I believe he will be an excellent licensed massage therapist, and an asset to our industry. I hope you will give him a chance to prove me right!

Sincerely,

Teresa Lopez, LMT
