Fingerprint Background Waiver

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing. These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.

1. You must be notified by Nevada State Board of Massage Therapy (name of requesting agency) that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI and the State of Nevada.
2. Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.
3. Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI and/or the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.
4. Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI and/or Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.
5. If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record. The procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your FBI criminal history record as set forth at, 28 CFR 16.34 provides for the proper procedure to do so.

6. If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)

I'm writing this in letter to the NSBMT, this is in regards to my past criminal history. I don't glorify anything i've done or been through, I also don't regret it. I honestly believe that was the road I had to take to get to where i'm at. Most of the charges are gun/drugs, i think the reason for that was because in the housing project where i came up at that was the influence. Back then I didn't have a positive outlook on what life was. I don't think back then there were too many nights that went by without hearing gun fire. You could literally go outside and find drugs on the ground. Growing up at that time I honestly didn't think I saw myself living past 18 years old. That was my life's expectation. I can't say that I started hanging with the wrong crowd. The reason I say this is because we were all from the same place. All of our parents were on drugs, so that was a struggle in itself. I remember going to my mom's house leaving my grandparents. I found a bubble tape container, back then gum was in the container. Not the one that I found it was filled with crack cocaine. I already knew what it was because I had been around it before. This is what started me selling drugs. Doing those things carrying a gun is going to eventually pop up on your to do list.

When I did start getting incarcerated I was using my mother as an excuse as to why I was messing up. I knew at the time it bothered her for me to be incarcerated, so that was my way of getting back at her when I was mad. I think that had something to do with my behavior. My girlfriend went online and signed me up for school. North West career College. I can honestly say that was one of the best things that happened in my life. Meeting genuine people like Hugo, T.J., Ms. Kayla, Ms. Paloma, Mr. B, Ms. Teresa, and Ms. Amber, amongst others. Them being genuine and transparent allowed me to see the way that I visualized the world and people as totally wrong. Going to that school lifted a rain cloud from over my head. Then showed me that not everyone is judgemental, and they also showed me that I can do it. North West Career College really saved my life. I honestly believe that. I just want to receive my license so that I may continue on this wonderful journey.

Sincerely, Jajuane Fisher
