Re: Agenda 8/8- Application of Zhongqiong Yang

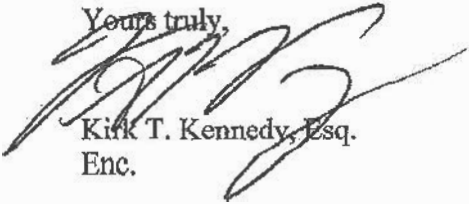

Dear Ms. Van Horn:

The application review for Ms. Zhongqiong Yang is set for August 8. The matter was previously continued for me to attempt to obtain records from her two previous California criminal cases. Please add this information to her pending application:

1. Ms. Yang was arrested in 2018 in the City of Anaheim under citation number AN1651380 with a single charge of prostitution. The citation was never prosecuted by the Anaheim authorities, as it was not formally filed as criminal case in the Anaheim court. I did send a records request to the Anaheim Police Department to obtain any records of the event, however, the Anaheim Police denied my records request as apparently California law does not allow a suspect to obtain police investigatory records. See Exh. 1, Anaheim Police letter attached.
2. In 2022, Ms. Yang was arrested regarding a domestic violence incident with her husband. On July 26, 2023, the Rancho Cucamonga Superior Court entered an order dismissing both charges in the matter due to insufficient evidence. Exh. 2, Minute Order, attached. Based on this Order, the 2022 criminal case is now dismissed with no convictions.

Please supplement Ms. Yang's existing application documents with this information. Thank you.

Yours truly,

Kirk T. Kennedy, Esq.

Re: Public Records Act Request

Dear Mr. Kennedy,

The Anaheim Police Department ("APD") is in receipt of your Public Records request dated March 24, 2023. Therein you have requested the following records:

Report Number: 18-158703

Your request has been denied. Your client is not a victim to the main subject matter

The record(s) you seek may be withheld from production if they fall within any of the following exemptions to the California Public Records Act:

- Police investigatory records are generally exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code § 7923.600(a);
- Documents reflecting police techniques or "security procedures" are expressly exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code § 7923.600(a);
- You are not the victim of the subject incident or an authorized representative thereof and the report is exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code § 7923.615(a).

The requested material may be produced in response to a proper Subpoena Duces Tecum with associated Notice to Consumer.

Kind regards,

Dyan Hobday-Smith

Re: Report Request; Citation No: AN1651380; GO No. 18-158703
My Client: Zhongqiong Yang

Dear Records:

I am Nevada Counsel for Ms. Zhongqiong Yang, who was cited by the Anaheim Police Department on December 3, 2018, under citation number AN 1651830, GO No. 18-158703. See Copy of Citation Attached.

I am assisting my client with a State licensing matter in Nevada and the circumstances of her 2018 citation for a 647(B) Prostitution arrest are a cause of concern. I am requesting your assistance to provide a copy of any arrest reports or incident reports generated or related to her arrest. Accompanying this letter, please find her notarized authorization to release these records to my office, along with a copy of her current drivers license.

Please contact my office to advise of any copying expenses due for this request. My office email is ktkennedylaw@gmail.com Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Yours truly,

Kirk T. Kennedy, Esq.
