To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Obdulio Recinos-Mejia. I am writing concerning certification/licensing in Nevada to practice Massage Therapy. After speaking with Sandy, I understand the board will meet this coming March 2024 regarding considerations for therapy licensing. I respectfully request to be granted the privilege of a future massage therapy license to practice in the state of Nevada and other states where applicable.

The main reason I am writing to you today is to initiate a request for a background check in order to ensure that moving forward with education for massage licensing is viable. I want the board to know, weigh and consider the circumstances surrounding my previous case. At the age of 17, I was arrested, charged, and tried as an adult for my crime. I want to make the board aware that I was convicted and sentenced to 15 years to life in the Nevada Department of Corrections and served 18 years. While I was incarcerated, I had to learn, grow up and mature quickly from my mistakes. I did not want to continue making mistakes and I knew I had to change in order to be a better person. Feeling sorry for myself and the erroneous actions was not going to change what I had caused. Only my diligence, education and making the best of my time could correct the errors in thinking I had adopted leading up to my conviction. I've always had a passion for helping others, and I work well with my hands. When I'm injured due to sports or work, I've always utilized massage to bring myself back to optimal health. I know that with the proper training and the granted privilege of a license I will not only be able to help heal people, but also to restart and rebuild my life in a career that I am passionate about. Please grant me the opportunity to not only rebuild my life but to do it through one of my passions as a career. If I am able to go before the board and provide you with a detailed account of my past and the diligent work and education I have completed in the time I was incarcerated it would be appreciated. I would be grateful to be placed on the docket for the next board meeting. Enclosed you will find a background check that was completed on 1/3/24 for reference.

Respectfully,

Obdulio Recinos-Mejia
