Re: Chinda Khoeur

I am writing this letter to recommend Chinda Khoeur for a massage license in the state of Nevada. I have known her for 20 years since I used to practice medicine in Nevada. In my interactions with her I have always been impressed by the unwavering commitment to excellence. She approaches every clients with enthusiasm, professionalism, and compassion. Beyond her professional capabilities she is of great character. Chinda's positive attitude and willingness to go above and beyond to help others are some her invaluable assets.

Her practice will be a welcome addition to the opportunities for clients to learn of traditional and far eastern methods of healing. She is a great teacher of all her therapeutic skills and has a sense of understanding that has lead her to have a dedicated clientele. I recommend her without any reservation.

Respectfully submitted

To Whom This May Concern:

RE CHINDA KHOUEN

I Have known Chinda since she was about 16. I met her through my son, whom she dating. They didn't work out but we have never lost touch. I call her daughter and she calls me Mama #2.

I feel I know her well. She is a good person and treats people with kindness and love. I WAS A BODY WORKER FOR 20 YEARS AND IT WAS FROM ME THAT SHE CHOSE MASSAGE. I believe she would do this job well in a caring, responsible and loving way. She studies on her own, to learn energy work and different modalities to better service those she works on. I have no doubts about her capabilities and I hope you will consider her for licensing. She will be a great therapist.

Sincerely,

Barbara Freeman Nulik

To Whom It May Concern,

I am Steve Rockman, and I am honored to write this letter of reference for my dear friend, Chinda. I have had the pleasure of knowing Chinda for the past three years, and throughout this time, I have come to deeply respect and admire her for her impeccable character and unwavering integrity.

Chinda is a person of exceptional reliability and trustworthiness. She consistently honors her commitments, no matter how challenging they may be. Her dedication to her responsibilities and the people she cares about is truly commendable. I have witnessed firsthand how she goes out of her way to support others, often putting their needs ahead of her own.

During her time in massage therapy school, Chinda demonstrated her expertise, skill, and genuine desire to help others. On a few occasions, she performed cupping therapy on me. Her proficiency and attention to detail were remarkable, and the treatment greatly alleviated my discomfort. Chinda's ability to combine technical skill with a caring and empathetic approach sets her apart as a professional.

Chinda embodies the qualities of honesty, ethics, and loyalty. She adheres to the highest standards of conduct and always strives to do what is right. Her ethical principles guide her actions, making her a dependable and honorable individual. Chinda's loyalty to her friends, family, and colleagues is unwavering, and she can always be counted on to provide support and encouragement.

In conclusion, I highly recommend Chinda as a massage therapist. Her character, skills, and dedication make her an exceptional individual. If you have any further questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at

Sincerely,

Steve Rockman

To Whom It May Concern

I have known Chinda Khoeun for more than five years now. Several years ago, I was recommended to try her eastern cupping therapy to help mitigate my back and shoulder pain from skydiving and snowboarding falls.

I have come to know Chinda as a positive, friendly, and compassionate person. Her willingness to help with any type of pain and discomfort is parallel to none. Her skilled understanding and knowledge of cupping has alleviated the pain and discomfort other massage therapists and chiropractors failed to do. I have referred Chinda to numerous friends, family and coworkers who unanimously relate with confidence her willingness to go above and beyond what was expected. Time and time again she has surpassed what I thought was possible through her professional techniques.

I wholeheartedly and with no reservations recommend Chinda to receive her Nevada State Board Massage Therapy License, so that she can continue to grow and develop as well as bring comfort and healing to others.

Sincerely

Nevada State Board of Massage Therapy

Dear Members of the Nevada State Board of Massage Therapy,

I am writing to provide a character reference for Chinda Khoeun, who is applying for a massage therapy license in the state of Nevada. I have had the pleasure of knowing Chinda for eight years in both personal and professional capacities, and I am confident that she possesses the qualities and skills necessary to excel in this field.

Chinda has consistently shown a deep commitment to helping others and enhancing their well-being. As a massage therapist, she possesses exceptional technical skills, underpinned by a thorough understanding of the human body and its needs. Her expertise in various massage techniques, such as Cupping therapy, deep tissue, and therapeutic massage, is remarkable and highlights her dedication to continuous learning and professional growth.

Beyond technical proficiency, Chinda possesses several personal qualities that make her an outstanding candidate for a massage therapy license. She is compassionate, patient, and empathetic, which enables her to connect deeply with clients and understand their individual needs. Her ability to create a relaxing and welcoming environment puts clients at ease, ensuring a positive and healing experience.

In addition to her professional skills, Chinda consistently demonstrates reliability, integrity, and a strong work ethic. She tackles every task with enthusiasm and meticulous attention to detail, always aiming to provide the highest level of care. Chinda is also an outstanding communicator, adept at explaining procedures clearly and addressing any questions clients may have, thereby fostering trust and confidence.

I have personally experienced Chinda's expertise through her cupping therapy sessions. Her proficiency in this ancient technique is evident in her ability to carefully assess and address specific areas of tension and discomfort. During my sessions, Chinda's meticulous attention to detail and her ability to create a comfortable, relaxing environment made a significant difference in my overall well-being. Her cupping therapy not only alleviated my pain but also enhanced my physical and mental relaxation. This experience is a testament to Chinda's exceptional skill and her commitment to providing holistic care tailored to each client's needs.

In summary, Chinda is an exceptionally skilled and dedicated massage therapist whose personal and professional attributes make her an ideal candidate for licensing in Nevada. She will undoubtedly be an asset to any practice or organization and will continue to make a positive impact on the lives of her clients.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,
Meilani Martinez

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing to give my highest recommendation for Chinda Khoen. I have known Chinda professionally and personally since 2011 when she worked as an Art Consultant while I was the Director of HR at Peter LIK Galleries. Chinda continually delivered results and went above and beyond in providing exceptional support and leadership and showed genuine integrity and respect as a team member.

Chinda was an active and tireless contributor that continually delivered high-quality results with integrity. Her resourcefulness, business intelligence and instincts, positive attitude, and drive as a sales professional made her an absolute pleasure to work beside. You could always count on Chinda going above and beyond by providing exceptional service to both her clients and her LIK teammates. Her creative thinking, expertise, and drive as a sales expert made her an absolute pleasure to work with, and her positive attitude and energy made for a fun and lively environment. Chinda is enthusiastic, highly personable, analytical, and a joy to be around.

She is excellent in dealing with difficult situations, both by showing empathy and problem solving, but balancing it with toughness, humor, and doing the right thing for the company and her integrity. Throughout the time I've known her, she has shown me time and again that she is a positive, motivated leader.

In the years since we have both left the LIK organization, we have become close friends. As a matter of fact, I trust her so much I have recommended her multiple times, and my wife is a client.

Thank you,

Tyson Townsend

Dear, Representatives of Nevada State Board of Massage Therapy

My name is Dej'Sheron Alston I'm the previous lead educator of Aveda Institute's Massage Therapy Program. Chinda Khoeun was one of my previous students. I can attest to Chinda's character she is hard working, kind, and ambitious. She has a desire to help others through massage therapy. I believe it would be a disservice to not allow her to become a Licensed Massage Therapist here in Nevada based on one mistake that she's made in the past. We need more exceptional Massage Therapists, and I believe that she has the ability to be excellent at her craft and positively impact the community through the work that she will offer.

Sincerely, Dej'Sheron Alston

RE: Chinda Khoeun

Dear Ms. Van Horn:

This letter is regarding Chinda Khoeun. She has been my friend for five years and I met her at the gym we both went to at the time. Her positive energy and reliability along with her ability to listen and be there for her friends makes her one of the most outstanding people I know. She met me during one of the hardest times for me and was nothing but supportive and encouraging.

She also did some cupping for me in September of 2022 and she was amazing. Chinda needs to be able to all the practices she is capable of as she can make a very big difference in people's lives.

She is also an amazing mother and all-around great person.

Feel free to contact me if you need more information.

Sincerely,

Kim N. Dennin
