(I spoke with a lady at your office over the phone and we could not get it on the forms section because it would not come up on the internet when we looked for it).

The website under the forms section might be up for maintenance.

She told me to email you at this address and request that a hard copy be mailed to me.

I understand that I have to return it with a $50.00 money order or check to have the background check reviewed.

Thank you very much and I hope you have a Superhappy day.
